These crimes have been on the Bureau’s radar for some time. It’s as simple as filing a couple of forged documents at your County Recorder’s office. That is the beginning of a long and painful ordeal, if this happens to you it will be financially and emotionally devastating. The criminals may take out large loans against your equity and you won’t know until the bank forecloses on you. This is serious, you could lose your home. I want you and your family to be protected.
