“Plant-based skincare products infused with CBD from hemp seeks professional for commercial radio test.”

Title: “Bota’s Plant Powered Skin Care Supplements with CBD from Hemp”

Casting Radio Commercial for the USA National Markets
These are Non-Union Radio Commercial Spots.

The Usage: Radio commercials to start. Strong potential for TV commercials after that.

Storyline: A licensed cosmetic or plastic surgeon or dermatologist to educate consumers about the benefits of this high-end line of plant-based skincare products and cosmetics. These products contain CBD (legal hemp version that requires no prescription). Qualified candidates will be given products and be willing to talk about and endorse product line.

Casting: (A Must Requirement for All Talent)

Male or Female doctor who is currently licensed in the capacity of (a) Cosmetic or plastic surgeon or (b) Dermatologist

Musts:

1. Currently licensed and in good standing with the AMA in their area of practice
2. Enthusiastic about the potential benefits of CBD infused into the highest quality plant-used skincare products.
3. Appreciate the outside-in and inside-out benefits of skincare (topical + supplements)
4. Willing to try the line of products and provide a first-person endorsement

2ndly the talent must be a strong advocate of CBD products. Finally, the talent must be willing to endorse our client’s CBD products (note: the client is highly ethical, has products in pharmacies throughout the US, and subscribes to 3rd party lab tests on all products)

Pay: $1,000 for the Talent+ 20% for the licensed talent’s agent. Talent works for 2 hr. audio session fee for ads that may be used on radio. Audio studio will be located close to the doctor selected to minimize travel expenses.

ADDED BENEFIT: doctors often search for opportunities for greater practice building exposure. Being featured in high quality ads for a great product is a good way to accomplish this. Anyone that self-submits must indicate who their rep is or that they are “independent or freelancing”!

(This project may also request additional Voice-Over & or On Camera work in the future. Additional work will be paid separately from this audio opportunity. Only submit to the emails, electronically as requested. No Traveling to SD to Audition is required).

How to Submit the Self-taped Video. The self-taped video is of the health care professional sharing their expert opinion about CBD products – not medical marijuana. They can also speak of their personal use & the health benefits of CBD & that they have recommended CBD products to patients, friends and family.

PLEASE NOTE: These are CBD products derived from the hemp plant and contains NO THC. Send the self-tape video to the following emails: doctorgreg411@gmail.com & cc to swarren07@live.com
